

Transforming the family tree through literacy

Family Support Office

Home is where literacy takes root, and when a child struggles with reading, the search for answers and specialists trained in detecting learning differences can be difficult and intimidating.

Neuhaus Education Center resources and referral services provide families with a welcome first step in unlocking a path to reading success.

Register Now

This simulation guides you through reading and handwriting activities in a way that allows you to experience a sense of the struggles and frustration that students with learning differences often face. Understanding the difficulties that students face can help us provide more effective support.

Adult Literacy Classes

The Margaret H. Ley Adult Literacy Program offers evening continuing education classes for adults 18 and older in the spring and the fall at Neuhaus Education Center. Our goal is to maximize the reading, spelling, and comprehension skills of our enrolled students by providing evidence-based reading instruction to the adult learner.

For more information about our adult literacy classes, please call us at (713) 664-7676 or email us at AdultLiteracy@neuhaus.org.
