One day, a third grade class went to the zoo. The children saw many interesting animals there. They especially liked the lions, the monkeys, and the snakes.

When they returned to school, all the children wanted to draw pictures of the cute little baby's trunk and large, flapping ears.

One day, a third grade class went to the zoo. The children saw many interesting animals there. They especially liked the lions, the monkeys, and the snakes. Everyone's favorite was the baby elephant. When they returned to school, all the children wanted to draw pictures of the cute little baby's trunk and large, flapping ears.
