

Skydive

The three skydivers received training in the classroom at first. They were ready for their big day – their first dive! The plane climbed to 10,000 feet. The three jumpers stepped up ready to take the leap and begin their free fall.

The instructor pulled the diver aside and let the other two divers jump out of the plane. “You’ll have to wait till next time when you have a chute,” he said.

Skydive

The instructor discovered that one diver had forgotten to pack his parachute!

The instructor pulled that diver aside and let the other two divers jump out of the plane. “You’ll have to wait till next time when you have a chute,” he said.
